Vendor Eligibility

Open to individual artists and crafters presenting original works, farmers selling produce, canned and baked goods. Non-profit organizations may sell baked goods or approved items to raise funds for their organizations. A limited number of resale and commercial items of the highest quality may be accepted. This is a juried show to maintain quality and variety. The BBA reserves the right to reject any display that is not in keeping with the examples submitted.

City Vendor Permit Requirement

The City of Bandera requires ALL VENDORS to obtain a permit through the City Hall. There is a separate application and fee due before 5:00 pm the Wednesday before the event. If this deadline is missed, there is a $50.00 late charge to obtain a permit. Please visit the City website at www.cityofbandera.org. A separate City Fee may be charged. Under "Doing Business," there is a link for Vendors and Food Vendors. See those pages for more details. Applications are submitted directly to Keely Hansen via email at adminassist@cityofbandera.org. If you have questions about City Permits, please call Keely at 830-522-3126, in City Hall, at 511 Main Street.

BBA REQUIREMENTS

Vendors MUST pre-register and pre-pay to participate. $55 for a 10x10 OR if you reserve for 2 or more months and pay in advance: $50/month. Make checks payable to the Bandera Business Association. Your check will not be cashed until you are accepted into the show. Notification will be by phone or email. Open spaces only. You provide your own canopy, tables, chairs, etc. All registration forms must be accompanied by photos or e-mailed photos, or a web address with photos. Note: The photo requirement is waived if you are a returning vendor or have previously submitted photos of your work to Bandera Market Days. Deadline for applications for each show is the Wednesday prior to the scheduled Saturday event.
